

Brief Personal History – Attorney Shmuel Treister - Admitted as lawyer in 4 countries (NZ, Israel, Aust. and USA).

Born 22/09/1954 in Wellington NZ

1976 Graduated with Bachelor of Laws from Victoria University Wellington NZ

1977 Admitted as Barrister and Solicitor Supreme Court NZ

1977 – 1982 Worked for NZ Government as lawyer in Ministry of Transport where developed Road Transport Regulations and later for the Justice Department (Investigating Solicitor – corporate fraud).

1982-1983 Admitted to NSW Bar Australia. Worked for Barrister on Nugan Hand Bank case.

1984 Admitted to Bar in NY and worked for Commodity Futures Trading Commission. Licensed Broker for all types of financial instruments.

1985 – 1991 Worked in Merchant Banking in Australia. Opened representative office for Prudential-Bache who joined a local Stock Broking firm (Courtis and Carr) to form a new company . Led the work force in marketing options and derivatives to Australian and US financial institutions. Biggest client – Bankers Trust. Married an Israeli artist. Later worked in Treasury of Citibank (derivatives).

1992-1993 Worked as solicitor in NSW

1994 Made Aliyah to Zefat where the family home and office are situated.

1995 – 2019 Admitted to Israeli Bar and established own law office in Zefat practicing Real Estate Law, Commercial Law, Estate Law, Private International Law, Contract Law and Family Law.